

Become a Certified Community Health Worker with WMHO's Training Institute

Make a real difference in the lives of others through the World Mental Health Organization's Community Health Work Training Institute. Our state-certified programs—approved by the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS)—prepare you with the essential skills to serve diverse community health needs.

Why Choose Our Training?

Our comprehensive curriculum is based on the nationally recognized C3 Recommendations, ensuring you master:

- 10 vital roles like cultural mediation, advocacy, and service coordination
- 11 core skills including communication, outreach, and program evaluation

Specialize in What Matters to You

Tailor your education to your community's needs with focused training in areas such as:

- Mental health coaching
- Substance use disorder support
- Health education
- Geriatric care
- Physical health and nutrition

Flexible Learning for Every Path

We offer multiple ways to learn and grow:

- Individualized training
- Apprenticeships
- Group and corporate programs
- Internships and on-the-job experience

Community First

At the heart of our program is a commitment to servicing with empathy, compassion, and advocacy. We believe the most effective community health workers are deeply connected to the communities they serve.

Whether you're starting your career or advancing your skills, WMHO's Community Health Work Training Institute gives you the tools, certifications, and real-world experience to become a leader in community health.

Start your journey today—and be the change your community needs.